A BOLT FROM THE BLUE

A policy decision today in a gathering revealed that there is zero tolerance for even trifle negligence or laxity and no compromise on patients' safety and health care of patients. It is a good omen though misunderstood as a bolt from the blue.

Conducive atmosphere is need of the hour for healthcare of the patients and for peace of mind of staff to devote all their expertise to the ailing population. It cannot be achieved without raising awareness across the board for behavioral change in the community. The sociocultural change cannot be made over a night as Rome was not built in a day.

The real essence of zero tolerance is to improve performance, enhance effectiveness, efficiency and responsiveness for the provision of quality and safe healthcare services to the people.

Dr. Khalid Masud – HD, MTI BKMC kicked out two delinquent staff members and repatriated them to the parent department conveying a message of zero tolerance towards patients' safety and care. He categorically stated that we want quality services for patients and no compromise on negligence whether deliberate or otherwise. Yes, we are bent upon to facilitate the staff as well to the maximum, he added.

Prof. Dr. Shahid Nisar – MD, MTI BKMC kicked off Institutional Based Private Practice (IBPP) despite of opposite breezes.

Further to add that patients are getting benefits of Sehat Sahulat Program during the IBPP in evening shift.. He expressed in an interview that IBPP is much beneficial to the patients as all facilities like, x - ray, Ultrasound, laboratory facilities etc are under one roof and safe and clean units for their admissions.

METAPHYSICAL FLAVOUR

John Donne

DEATH, BE NOT PROUD

*Death, be not proud, though some have called thee
Mighty and dreadful, for thou art not so;
For those whom thou think'st thou dost overthrow Die not, poor Death, nor yet canst thou kill me.
From rest and sleep, which but thy pictures be,
Much pleasure; then from thee much more must flow,
And soonest our best men with thee do go,
Rest of their bones, and soul's delivery.
Thou art slave to fate, chance, kings, and desperate men,
And dost with poison, war, and sickness dwell,
And poppy or charms can make us sleep as well
And better than thy stroke; why swell'st thou then?
One short sleep past, we wake eternally
And death shall be no more; Death, thou shalt die.*

THOU

*Who says that I cannot find thou in this mortal world?
Everyone says lies and wrong – Your soul is embedded in my soul – your very much existence flow in my veins - Your heart beat is in my heartbeat and live in my thoughts - A reflection of you is in the sight of my eyes - I see with thy eyes. Your wisdom is in my mind, in my veins, in my speech and character. You are in my flight and breath. You are in my emotions and dreams and in my awakened shining eyes. You are in my expression and smile. You are in my success. I felt myself when vanished in you. Who says that I cannot find thou in this mortal world?
Everyone lies and everyone says wrong - They are ignorant and are not aware of all this except the one in whom you are alive. You are in my Love, You are in my Soul, You are in my day - You are in my Night - You live in me and I live in You - You are in my walk - You are in my talk -
You became me and I became you, I became body and you became soul
- Until no one says after - I'm in another one and are two. Who says that I cannot find thou in this mortal world? Everyone lies and everyone says wrong. They are not aware of all this except the one in whom you exist.*
